RECAPITULATION.

Know-nothings and republicans voting for Banks	110
Republican know-nothings voting against Banks	8
National know-nothings voting for Fuller	35
Democrats voting for Richardson and Orr	80

Mr. Miller, of Missouri, and Mr. Childs, of New York, absent since the beginning of the session; Mr. Trumbull's seat vacant. A number of times within the last four weeks the number recorded above as having voted for Mr. Banks could have elected him; and if to these are added the republican know-nothings who vote for Mr. Pennington, it would give to the side of the House supporting Mr. Banks a clear majority of the whole number, even with an unusual attendance.

This list has been prepared with great care, and is believed to be accurate. If any gentleman is erroneously classed it will give us pleasure to make the correction. Wash. Union.

CHESTERVILLE, S. C.

THAT LARGE AND SPLENDID THREE STORY Building on the east side of Chester Depot, is now open for the accommodation of persons travelling by the Cars, or otherwise. The Proprietor is well aware, that nothing short of a well-kept house, will induce custom to this so recently gotten up; and although very solicitous of patronage, he refrains from those thousand and one promises which have been made, only to be broken by many of his "illustrious predecessors."
He confidently hopes, that he will be sustained, and upon trial give that satisfaction and accomodation to the wearied traveller, that will send him on his way rejoicing.

RICHMOND IN BY-GONE DAYS; BEING REMiniscences of An Old Citizen.
Extract of a letter from Washington Irving, Esq., to the author of "Richmond in By-Gone Days," dated July 1856:
"Your little volume was particularly acceptable to me. "Richmond in by-gone days" was Richmond as I knew it in the days of my youth, nearly fifty years since. Every page of your volume brought up some delightful recollection of scenes, and characters, long since passed away; for at Richmond at the time of my visit, there was a rare assemblage of the talent and beauty of Virginia, and the impressions I received then have ever made "the Old Dominion dear to me."

Library—Houston, Cowper, Pool.

Mr. Hill, of Caswell, from the committee on joint rules, reported rules for the government of the two Houses, which were adopted.

Message received from the House of Commons, concurring in the proposition of the Senate to vote for Solicitor of the 6th Judicial Circuit, whereupon, the Senate proceeded to vote, as follows:

For Mr. Lander—Messrs. Speaker, Battle, Brogden, Bryant, Burges, Christian, Cameron, Carr, Chesson, Clark, Coleman, Cunningham, Dillard, Eaton, Fennell, Fonville, Gibson, Hill, Holmes, Houston, J. B. Mr. Clark, from the committee on rules for the government of the Senate, reported the same, which were adopted.

Mr. Mills, of Rutherford, introduced a bill to amend an act establishing the county of Polk. [The amendment provides for holding county and superior courts in the town of Columbus, in said county.] The bill passed its first reading, and on motion of Mr. Mills, the rules of the Senate were suspended, and the bill passed its second and last reading; ordered to be engrossed, and sent to the House of Commons.

Mr. Eaton, of Warren, moved to send a proposition to the House, to print the Constitution of the State, the U. States, rules of the Senate and House.

On motion of Mr. Clark, the Senate took up the proposition of the House to raise a joint select committee, on the Deaf and Dumb and Lunatic Asylums, Swamp and Cherokee Lands and Military Affairs, and concurred therein.

Message received from the House, proposing to print the report of the Superintendent of Common Schools. Concurred in.

Mr. Pool, of Pasquotank, offered the following preamble and resolution:

WHEREAS, The rule of courtesy, by which the dominant party in the several Legislatures of North Carolina, have heretofore invariably permitted the election of one assistant door-keeper of the same political faith with the minority, has been overlooked by this Legislature; and whereas, in holding private meetings for consultation upon the business of their constituents, the minority find it indispensable to have some one of their own political persuasion to prepare the room and attend upon their wants. Therefore,

Resolved, That the principal door-keeper of the Senate be permitted to deliver to such person as the members of this Legislature constituting the minority may designate, the key of the Senate Chamber, at such times as it may be required by them for the purpose of private meeting and consultation; provided, That such person, so designated, shall not be paid for his services from the Public Treasury.

Mr. Clark had no objection to showing to the minority all proper courtesies. He did not know, however, but that the preamble contained assertions not exactly in accordance with facts. He was willing that the minority should use the Senate Chamber for their private meetings, still he could not vote for the preamble, as it implies censure. He denied that it was an invariable rule for the dominant party to concede one assistant door-keeper; and he referred to periods, in his legislative knowledge, when the Whig party proscribed Democrats when they had the power so to do.

Mr. Wilder, of Wake, was sorry to see his friend from Pasquotank pressing his preamble. He should move to strike out all except the resolution.

Mr. Cameron said he was for conceding to the minority one assistant door-keeper, and should have so voted if a candidate had been in nomination when that officer was elected; but the preamble asserted FACTS without the proof, and he should vote for striking it out.

Mr. W. R. Myers assumed similar ground to Mr. C., but would vote to strike out the preamble.

Messrs. Pool, J. W. Thomas, Gorrell and Christian, defended the preamble and resolution, when the Senate proceeded to vote on Mr. Wilder's motion to strike out.

Those who voted in the affirmative are, Messrs. Battle, Brogden, Cameron, Carr, Chesson, Clark, Coleman, Cunningham, Dillard, Eaton, Fennell, Fonville, Hill, Holmes, Houston, J. B. Jones, McDiarmid, Martin, Mills, Miller, W. R. Myers, Person, Sanders, Speight, Taylor, Ward, White and Wilder—28.

Those who voted in the negative are, Messrs. Bryant, Burges, Christian, Cowper, Gibson, Gorrell, Holt, A. J. Jones, A. Myers, Parks, Pool, Ramsay, J. W. Thomas and Wiggins—14.

The question then recurring on the passage of the resolution, as amended, those who voted for its passage are, Messrs. Battle, Brogden, Bryant, Cameron, Carr, Chesson, Clark, Coleman, Cunningham, Dillard, Eaton, Fennell, Fonville, Gorrell, Hill, Holmes, Holt, Houston, J. B. Jones, McDiarmid, Martin, Mills, Miller, W. R. Myers, A. Myers, Parks, Pool, Sanders, Speight, Taylor, J. W. Thomas, Ward, Wiggins, White and Wilder—35.

Nays—Mr. A. J. Jones.

On motion of Mr. Humphrey the resolution was laid on the table.

Mr. Hill, of Halifax, reported from the committee upon rules for the government of the House recommending those of the last Legislature with certain amendments. Report adopted.

Mr. Hill drew the attention of the House to a clause in the revised code making it the duty of the keeper of the capitol to act as door-keeper until that officer was elected, and hoped that the action of the present House in paying the former door-keeper for their services before the election would not be a precedent.

Mr. Lewis presented a report from the joint committee on rules of order, which was read, concurred in, and a message sent to the Senate informing them thereof.

Mr. George M. White, of Bladen, was qualified and took his seat.

Mr. Ferebee presented a bill to revive and amend an act entitled "an act to incorporate the Camden and Pasquotank new cut canal company." Read and referred to the committee on internal improvements.

Mr. L. Q. Sharp, of Iredell, was qualified and took his seat.

Mr. Rushing presented a bill to provide for the payment of talis jurors. Read and referred to the committee on the judiciary.

A message was received from the Senate proposing to enter forthwith into an election of Solicitor for the sixth district, which, being concurred in, Mr. Jenkins nominated Mr. Lander.

Mr. Foster nominated V. C. Barringer.

The committee to superintend the election reported that Mr. Lander received 103 votes; Mr. Barringer 37.

Mr. Lander was declared duly elected.

Mr. Speer presented a bill to amend certain sections of the revised code concerning the qualification of jurors. Read and referred to the committee on the judiciary.

The Speaker announced the following committees:

House Committee on Corporations and Currency.—Messrs. Hill, of Halifax, Outlaw, Caldwell, Bridgers, and Davidson.

Joint Committee on the Lunatic Asylum.—Messrs. A. M. Lewis, Crump, Blow, Tate, and Pitchford.

Joint Committee on the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institution.—Messrs. Erwin, A. Thompson, Cox of Jones, Mabry, Waddell, and Routh.

Joint Committee on Finance.—Messrs. A. M. Scales, Smallwood, Long, Elliott, Speight, C. N. White, Bledsoe, and McIntosh.

On motion of Mr. Hill, of Halifax, a message was sent to the Senate proposing to print the joint rules of order for the use of the members of the General Assembly.

Mr. Leach's bill for repealing the 5th and 6th section of the 36th chapter of the revised statutes was taken up for second reading.

Mr. Hill, of Stokes, moved to amend by striking out the words "fifth and."

Mr. Leach objected and moved that the bill be laid on the table for the present. Adopted.

Mr. Jenkins moved the bill be taken up and referred to the committee on the judiciary, which was rejected—yeas 42; nays 48.

A message was received from the Senate proposing to have the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of North Carolina printed with the joint and separate rules of order for the use of the members of the General Assembly, Library, &c.

Mr. Leach moved to amend by inserting "and Washington's farewell address," on which he called for a division.

Mr. Lewis opposed the amendment; seeing no reason for having the address printed, it not having any connection with the rules of order of either House, and considered it merely as a piece of extravagance of no practical use whatever.

Mr Leach made some observations in reply, and stated the address was printed by several of the States in the manner proposed.

Mr. Erwin wished to have the proposition made in a tangible shape so that the address might be distributed among the people. He opposed its being printed among the rules, but would support a proposition to have it printed separately for distribution.

Mr. Badham moved to amend Mr. Leach's motion by adding President Pierce's third annual message, that document having a most important bearing on the interests of the South.

The Speaker said there was no analogy between the rules of order and Mr. Badham's amendment, and seemed to think the entire debate out of order.

Mr. Lewis opposed Mr. Badham's amendment on the same ground that he opposed Mr. Leach's—had no objection to have it done in pamphlet form, and thought they could publish Jackson's Bank veto message with as much consistency as those proposed.

Mr. D. F. Caldwell wished to make some remarks upon Jackson's veto message, but was called to order by the Speaker.

Mr. Jenkins stated his reasons for opposing the amendment. He had as much respect for the farewell address as the member from Davidson, (Mr. Leach.) He thought every member of the House had read the address, but if any had not let them purchase it for themselves and not compel the State to supply them. The address printed with the rules would be for the benefit of the members only, and not the people in general. He wished to have the Know Nothing ritual published along with the address and thus contrast it with the constitution. He concluded by opposing such an expenditure of the public money. Let those in want of the address purchase for themselves.

The Speaker decided Mr. Badham's and Mr. Leach's amendments were out of order, and ended the debate by putting the question on the original motion, which was adopted.

Mr. Crump was excused from serving on the committee on private bills and Mr. Settle appointed in his place.

On motion of Mr. Waddell the House adjourned.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Nov. 22, 1856.

Mr. Dockery, Senator from Richmond, appeared, was qualified, and took his seat.

Mr. Eaton moved that a proposition be sent to the House of Commons to raise a joint committee to count the vote for Governor—which was agreed to.

THE ROYALTY OF EVIDENCE: OR THE WORLD IN THE WITNESS BOX.—Diverse as are the opinions of men even of the same age and country about subjects sparently the simplest and least liable to misconstruction, it is not to be wondered at that a universal concurrence of mankind in favor of any problem should be regarded as (to use a lawyer's term,) a "royal evidence" of its truth. Indeed, so conclusive is this concurrence deemed, that many theologians urge it upon the attention of materialists and skeptics as a resistless argument in favor o divinity.

In fact upon only two propositions can we obtain the universal concurrence of humanity; upon all other points and questions makind have "agreed to differ."

In the existence of a Supreme Creator, all tribes and races of men concur. They give him different attributes in accordance with their peculiar tastes; but in the general belief that there is a God, they are unanimous.

In the efficacy of Holloway's Universal Remedies for the cure of disease a like unanimity exists in the opinion of the world. All countries, tribes, and races upon each employ these remedies and derive benefit from their use. Millions of savages to whose ears the very name of Christ has never yet been whispered, are familiar with the properties and powers of Holloway's external and internal remedies. The missionaries of health have preceded those of the Gospel; and in numberless instances, the physical relief imparted by the former has obtained and secured favorable audience for the more abstract and intangible blessings which the latter sought an opportuity to bestow.

Our readers, when they hear that Holloway's medicines are employ by every people, and advertised in every tongue on earth, may smile contemptuously (as we did,) and think the tale a humbug:—but let them be convinced (as we have been,) that it is nothing but the naked truth. Wherever types and printing presses exist, Professor Holloway employs them to proclaim the sterling merits of his remedies:—wherever they do NOT exist, he has employed accomplished interpreters, and establish special organs at make known his discovery; tongues to which the Bible is a stranger, are eloquent with the name and fame of the great physician who has scattered gifts of healing over all lands and seas.

The world is in the witness-box and gives enthusiastic evidence in favor of Professor Holloway's remedies; and let those who would impugn such testimony be cautious—for, in so doing, by a parity they strike at the very foundations of religion and morality. The world is in the witness-box and gives its evidence for Holloway! Boston Traveller

THE PRESENT CONDITION OF THE JEWS.—At the present moment a Jew stands at the head of nearly every walk in life throughout Europe. The Rothchilds command the money market of the old world; D'Israeli, a Jew, leads the House of Commons; a Jew is Lord Mayor of London. In Germany half a dozen of the most distinguished professors the Jews. It is doubtful whether the late war in Europe could have been carried on without the aid of the Rothchilds. They loaned immense sums to both Russia on the one hand and the Allies on the other. They have more recently offered to furnish the Bank of France with thirty millions in gold. These sons of Israel hold the purse strings of the world—are the real kings of Europe, and wield a scepter of wider influence than did David in the zenim of his fame.

MARRIAGE OF SENATOR DOUGLAS.—A letter from Washington, dated Thursday, says:

"Judge Douglas was married to-day at 2 o'clock, at the house of the bride's father. The programme was changed, owing to the unavoidable detention of Judge Douglas at the West. Only a few of his immediate friends participated, among whom were Gen. Shields and Senator Slidell. The ceremony was performed by Father Byrne. Mr. Douglas left this evening for the North."

The bride is Miss Ada Cutts, a daughter of James Madison Cutts, Esq., of the Second Comptroller's Bureau, and nephew of the late Mrs. Madison. The letter further says:

"Miss Cutts resembles very much in her manners and tone her great aunt; and those who remember Mrs. M. in her more youthful days say there is great personal resemblance. Miss C. is now twenty-four years of age. She is tall, with a full form—graceful in movement, and amiable in disposition. Her face is remarkably beautiful, and her education has developed a well balanced and subtle intellect. In religion she is a Catholic, having been educated at Georgetown Nunnery."

DEATH OF PROFESSOR HENTZ.—Prof. N. M. Hentz died at the residence of his son at Mariana, Florida, on the 4th inst. He was a French gentleman of varied accomplishments, and well known as a teacher.

MEMORIES OF CHILDHOOD.

BY JAMES ROBINSON.

'Tis summer in the month of May,
And 'tis the twilight hour;
The sun has shed his parting ray
O'er mountain, tree, and tower:
And deep within the forest's shades—
Sweet nature's lovely bowers;
With rock and tree, and silent glades,
I dream away the hours.

I shut my eyes, and revery
Comes o'er me like a dream;
And now awakes sweet memory,
And fancy bids the theme.
Now, magic-like, I silently
To dreamland pass away;
Again my childhood's home I see,
I sing, and sport, and play.

Again I am a gentle boy,
And fly from flower to flower,
To chase the butterfly with joy,
And while away the hour.
Again I climb the mountain top,
And 'neath some aged tree,
I set and wonder of the sky,
The air, the earth, and sea.

Again I sit beside the brook,
With thread tied to a pin,
Turned at the point to form a hook,
I watch the fishes swim.
Slily I let it down so slow,
And full an hour I wait;
The little fellows seem to know
There's danger in the bait.

The stream's so clear as I look down,
I see them and I wait;
And now one bites and up I jump,
But he's only stole my bait.
Full twenty times they served me so,
But now one bites so sweet;
With all my strength my line I throw,
And land him at my feet.

The scene is changed—'tis winter time,
The flowers have passed away;
The birds have ceased their thrilling chime,
And yet all earth looks gay:
Each lofty crag, and mountain top,
Are white with frosted snow;
Each tree and house, and chimney top,
Are sparkling with the glow.

The school is out, and troops of boys
Rush wildly, leaping out,
With laugh and shout, and such a noise,
The snow they toss about.
And snow-balling they now commence—
I'm in my glory now:
Some boys have got behind a fence,
Beneath a hillock's brow.

Bang goes a ball—down goes a boy—
Now rolling in the snow;
He's up again with shouts of joy,
Pell-mell, they at it go.
'Tis strange they never feel the cold,
But then their blood is young;
They'l feel enough if they grow old,
What they ne'er felt when young.

The pond! the pond! shouts out a boy,
Away the youngest run,
With skates a jingling—smiles of joy,
And faces filled with fun.
Again I'm gliding o'er the lake,
Again come bumping down;
For joys like these I would not take
A kingdom with its crown.

And now quite tired with our sport,
Each face like roses shone;
Just then pops in a cheering thought,
Our dinner's waiting home.
And now I start—peep up the street—
There's sister at the door;
I eat my lunch, then fall asleep,
And go skating as before.

Again I skate with noble stroke,
Again I come tumbling down;
I start—my revery is broke—
I silently look round:
The moon is shining sweetly now,
The stars are twinkling bright;
In silent revery, somehow,
I've sat far in the night.

But quickly now the vision fades
To reality, too plain;
And deep within those forest shades,
I am a man again.
A sadden'd, weary man again,
With none to love—not one;
With none to love him—'tis a pain—
'Twill last till life has done.

Ah! memory and gentle hope—
The brightest gifts to man:
A soothing, magic antidote,
To cheer life's weary span.
For memory calls up the hours,
Of childhood's halcyon days;
And hope points up to heavenly bowers
It's bright, inspiring rays.

The President Elect--His Cabinet, &c.

There is already much speculation as to the persons who will compose the cabinet of Mr. Buchanan; and also as to his course with reference to Kansas, the slavery agitation, and other subjects.—The black Republican journals have commenced their attacks upon him in advance, and are laboring insidiously to produce the impression that his administration will be Southern, and not national; and that his cabinet will be made up of gentlemen differing so widely on the subject of slavery as to be unable to act together harmoniously. And these black Republican journals are most faithfully responded to and re-echoed by many of the Know Nothing journals of the South; for there is, at least, one common bond of union between them—that of hatred towards the Democratic party, and a desire to see it overthrown, at whatever hazard.

Mr. Buchanan is a statesman of great experience, of mature age, of sound judgment, and lofty patriotism. He will not be apt to do any thing without due reflection. He is no headlong, headstrong, precipitate man; but he is cool, clear-headed, sagacious, not subject to caprices of possion, nor liable to be swerved by opposition of any kind from the path of duty. He is, too, a firm man. He is not only fitted in every respect to be the President, but he will be, whoever may be in his cabinet, or whatever may be said or be advised to be done by persons in or out of it.

That is our opinion of Mr. Buchanan.

The incoming President will have to encounter many difficulties, but we believe he will be equal to them all. We take it for granted, from our estimate of the man, that he will call around him a competent and able cabinet; and we confess that we are not much concerned as to who they may be, nor as to the States from which they may be called. That is a matter for his consideration; and the Democratic party, we are sure, will be generally satisfied with his selections.

Nor do we expect him to be a Southern President. He is a national man in his antecedents, in his principles, and he is the elect of a national party. We expect him to be President of the United States—all of them, from Maine to California. We expect him to do all in his power to subdue the abolition spirit, and to allay slavery agitation; but we ask him to perform no unjust act towards the free States. In relation to slavery extension, what we ask and all we ask, is the principle of non-intervention by Congress—no geographical lines, but the right of the people of the Territories, when they come to form State Constitutions, to say whether they will have slavery or not. Less than this the Southern people will never submit to; more than this they have no right, under a common Constitution, to expect.

It will not be possible for Mr. Buchanan to please the black Republicans, or a majority of Southern Know Nothings. We are sure he will not attempt any such hopeless task. But he will do his duty firmly, unshrinkingly, under all circumstances, not turning to the right nor to the left to conciliate enemies or factions, but keeping constantly in view the interests and the welfare of the whole country. Constituted as he is, educated as he has been, experienced as he is, loving his country as he does, solicitous as he should be, and as he must be for the approval of the good and wise of this day and of posterity, and with but a few brief years separating him from his final account in the world hereafter, it is not possible that he should commit an intentional error, or act corruptly in his great office. But he will be misrepresented, maligned, and reviled by sectionalists and demagogues—his motives will be assailed; and if the Union should be threatened with destruction, during his term, or at the close of it, as it has recently been threatened, he will be held up by the class referred to as responsible for the impending ruin. But Jefferson, and Jackson, and Polk, and Pierce have passed through the fire before him. The people cheered and sustained them, and they will sustain him. If the New England States—the region of bigotry and isms—voted against the latter, they also voted against Mr. Jefferson; but in Mr. Jefferson's second contest with federalism, in 1804, they all voted for him, with the exception of Connecticut.

With such a man for President, and with a Democratic Congress, we are far from despairing of the Republic.

The Legislature.

The first week of the session has passed, and both houses have fully organized and appointed their Committees. They are now prepared to proceed with their labors.

There are several subjects of importance which will engage the attention of the two houses. Let us hope that there will be as little as possible of party discussions and party bitterness; and that all will unite and labor together to promote the interests and advance the prosperity of our beloved State.

The general impression appears to be that the present session will not be as protracted as former ones.

☞ In Wednesday's report of the proceedings in the House of Commons, it was stated that Mr. Foster was qualified and took his seat; this was an error, as that gentleman appeared and was qualified on the morning previous.

General Walker.

We learn from the Hon. John H. Wheeler, U. S. Minister to Nicaragua, who arrived here on the steamer Texas, that the condition of affairs in Nicaragua is daily improving—that Gen. Walker, who has now with him about two thousand as brave fellows as ever shouldered a rifle, is in a position to resist and overcome any power that the South Americans can bring against him, and that he has no fear of any future force or combination of forces.

We also learn from Col. Wheeler, that the climate of Nicaragua is admirable, though not such as to allow of any excesses in eating or drinking.

For one who is prudent in his mode and manner of life, there is no climate more healthy.

The honorable gentleman soon leaves, we understand, for Washington on official business, but will return to his post at an early day. He has displayed most eminent abilities in a position surrounded with difficulties and dangers, and has performed the high duties connected with his ministerial office eminently satisfactorily, we believe, to the Government.

New York News.

Col. Wheeler, it is understood, returned with a view to recruiting his health and strength, having been recently dangerously indisposed.

The "El Nicaraugueso" of a late date contains full and interesting accounts of the "attack at Massaya—the routing of the allied forces—the countermarch on Granada—two glorious victories in two days," &c. General Walker, it is known, is in conflict with several of the neighboring States; and the result of these battles seems to have given strong assurance that for a considerable time, at least, he will remain unmolested. From the accounts referred to above, his troops fought with much courage and achieved signal victories.

While the attack by Walker on Massaya was going on, a part of the enemy entered Granada, the capital of Nicaragua, when a number of American citizens were murdered. Walker, however, soon returned, and drove them from the capitol with great slaughter. "El Nicaranguese" says:

"It appears that as soon as Gen. Belloso, a San Salvadorian, who is commander-in-chief of the Allies, heard of Gen. Walker's approach, he dispatched by a different road about six hundred men to attack Granada. He must have been under the impression that the capital had been left wholly unprotected, and that it would fall easily into his hands.

They arrived about 1 o'clock on the afternoon of the 12th, and entered the city by two parts. They attempted to get into the plaza, but were repulsed with considerable loss. They then got into houses and began to cut their way into the center of the city.

There were only about one hundred and fifty Americans in Granada, including the sick in the hospital, and these, under Brig. Gen. Fry, held the city and fought against this great odds for twenty-one hours.

Many of the women and children were placed for safety in the large parochial church, and a few sought the protection of the house of the American Minister. But the American flag was no protection. Brave men and Mississippi rifles were all that saved them.—The American Minister himself was at the time laboring under a serious illness; and were it not for the valor of his countrymen who would not see the stars and stripes defiled and dishonored, he, like other American citizens, would have been dragged from his bed and inhumanly butchered.

There were, unfortunately, some merchants and missionaries here who refused to take up arms, supposing that the flag of their country would afford them protection; but when the enemy found that they could not enter the plaza, they went around to the houses of those persons, and murdered them in a shocking manner.

Among those who thus lost their lives was a Mr. Wheeler, who had been sent here to distribute Bibles by the Bible Society of New York, the Rev. Mr. Ferguson, and a Mr. Lawless, who had been a merchant here for some years.

They broke into the houses of citizens who resided beyond the protection of our guns, killed every person they saw who had a white face, and destroyed all the property they could. Twice they attempted to fire the houses, but did not succeed.

About 8 o'clock on the morning of the 13th—the anniversary of the day on which he first took Granada—Gen. Walker and his force were within gunshot of Jalteba church.

On a slight eminence in the road, the enemy had erected a barricade and placed a cannon. Those who came from Massaya, here met a strong piquet of those already in the city, numbering probably a hundred, and they did certainly defend this spot with a spirit of desperation. Our men advanced to within fifty yards of them under a most galling crossfire. At this point, so intensely hot was the fire that they were stopped for about twenty seconds. At this juncture Gen. Walker himself appeared at their head. The sight of him made them invincible.—They charged like enraged lions, and the enemy fled in every direction, leaving their cannon in the field.

They then rushed into the city, attacking the places in which the enemy had fortified themselves, and in less than three-quarters of an hour the whole opposing forces were seeking for safety by hiding in the bushes, and endeavoring to escape from the city by every available source."

Solicitor for the 6th Circuit.

William Lander, Esq., of Lincoln, was on Friday last, re-elected Solicitor for this Circuit, by a vote of 103 to 37.

Mr. Lander is one of the ablest lawyers in the State of his age, and has discharged his duties as Solicitor with marked industry and fidelity. He is eminently deserving, both as an officer and as a man, of this renewed evidence of confidence on the part of the General Assembly.

The Legislature has yet to elect an Attorney General, and also Solicitors for the 1st and 7th Circuits; and if a new Circuit should be established, there will be a Judge and Solicitor to be chosen for that.

Oak-City Guards' Lectures.

The first lecture of the Course will be delivered by the Hon. D. L. Swain in the Hall of the House of Commons, on Saturday evening, Nov. 29th, at 7½ o'clock. The subject of the Lecture has not transpired, but apart from considerations touching the necessity of supporting this praiseworthy movement, anything from Gov. Swain will be looked forward to with interest.

Tickets 25 cents each, to be had at the Book and Drug Stores, or any member of the Committee.—The public is respectfully invited to attend.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.--We learn that a very sad accident occurred near Dysartville, McDowell county, in this State, a few days ago. The tressel work being put up by Dr. Vandyke for conveying water for mining purposes, fell, or gave way, instantly killing five white men and seriously wounding seven or eight others, some of whom will probably die.—The only names we have heard are those of Mr. Poteet and Mr. Epley, both killed.

The following "American Lights" have been and are to be disposed of as enumerated:

Raleigh Signal.—Discontinued.
Asheville Spectator.—Offered for sale.
Raleigh Register.—To be sold at auction.

Fay. Carolinian.

There was a caucus of the "American" members of the Legislature, in the Senate chamber, on Saturday night last. The main question before it, it is surmised, was that of an organ. It is expected that the Register will be purchased by a gentleman or gentlemen from a distance, and rejuvenated. Mr. Burr, of the Herald, was in the City on Saturday.

We call particular attention to the advertisements of J. H. Biggs, Esq., in to-day's Giraffe. Those that desire to get cheap clothing this cold weather, should call on him quick, for he sells so cheap that it is truly astonishing how he lives at it. Giraffe.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF NORTH-CAROLINA.

Below we present the official vote of the State for President and Vice President, compared with the recent election for Governor. There are some variations in the vote for electors, but we have taken the highest vote on each side. The new Counties of Harnett and Wilson vote with the counties, respectively, from which they were formed, and consequently they do not appear in our table. The vote of Polk was counted with that of Rutherford in the Governor's vote:

THE READING QUALIFICATION.—It is said that four hundred persons in Connecticut were deprived of their vote this month by the new constitutional provision requiring that they should know how to read and write, in order to vote. This provision was brought forward and passed by the know nothings of the State. The Philadelphia Ledger says:

"Connecticut is the first State that has made an attempt to disfranchise a free citizen. It is desirable that every man should possess those aids to knowledge—reading and writing—but we should not fall into the error of mistaking the mere instrumentalities for intelligence itself A man may know how to think correctly who knows nothing at all of reading and writing, and some that can do both the latter have no original thinking power. The latter are less capable of exercising the right of suffrage intelligently than the man who possesses natural mother wit, without any assistance from reading. An aristocracy founded on scholastic attainments may be better than one based upon property, but an aristocracy of any kind in a representative republic, established on the principle of equal political rights, is not very consistent, not very democratic.'

HE WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN.—The telegraph informs us (says the Memphis Appeal) that the legislature of Michigan elect is republican, and that General Cass will be defeated for the Senate. Such news is calculated to cast a chill over every good man and true patriot in the country. A man who, in his endeavors to save the Union from the various isms that have sprung up within the past few years, is beaten, and the sectionalists of the North rejoice over their victory!—such a victory would have been rejoiced over by the tories of the revolution had the news been received that the American army, led by Washington, at the battle-field of Yorktown, was defeated. When such gloating takes place over the defeat of a well-tried servant, who has devoted more years than are usually allotted to man, in the service of his country, and who, through that vast period of time, has been true to the whole Union, it is time for Americans--those worthy of the name—to rise in their might and sustain a second Cincinnatus from the assaults of an implacable foe, who would see the Union torn in shreds to carry out their fanatical designs. Although beaten by the black republicans, his many virtues and noble deeds are still green in the memory of the national men of the United States. General Cass will never be forgotten!

T. R. Fentress, Esq., merchant tailor of this city, offers a large and valuable assortment of ready-made clothing, and other articles generally kept in his line of business, to the public, and which he promises to sell very cheap for cash. See advertisement in another column.

Mr. Fentress is the greatest man to sell cheap bargains in the world. And it is said, if a man trades with him once, he gets so well pleased that he will never trade any other place afterwards. Giraffe.

NOTES ON THE CANVASS.—The champions of Democracy in this State have everywhere entitled themselves to the full meed of praise. They have manfully done their duty, in advocating the Democratic cause and in exposing the foul heresies of Know Nothingism. The people have evinced their appreciation of their efforts by cordially responding to their appeals and rolling up an overwhelming majority in their favor. "Well done, good and faithful servants," is the benediction bestowed upon them by the people.

Our own District Elector, William F. Martin, Esq., has ably and faithfully discharged the responsible trust confided to him. He has assiduously devoted himself to the arduous duties of his position; and his eloquent arguments have had their effect upon the popular mind. He has borne aloft our proud standard, and his party has reason to be proud of the power and effect with which he bore himself throughout the canvass.

It is due to the Hon. H. M. Shaw, our accomplished Elector for the State at large, that we should state that during the greater part of the canvass, he was confined to his bed by a dangerous illness, from which he is but now slowly recovering. He made several able and telling speeches during the early part of the canvass; and we feel warranted in saying, from our knowledge of his zeal in the cause, that but for his untimely illness, his eloquent voice would have been heard from one end of the State to the other, in gallant championship of Democratic principles. Dem. Pioneer.

HOGS.—For several days past our streets have been thronged with fat hogs, on their "winding way" to market. How many have passed through, we do not know. We have heard of no sales in this section, other than enough to settle bills as they pass along. The Spartanburg (S. C.) Express says a lot of forty reached that place last week, the first of the season, and were sold at five and three-quarter cents, gross. Asheville News.

MEETING OF THE NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE. The general assembly of North Carolina commenced its biennial session at Raleigh on Monday last, the 17th inst. A full attendance of members was present, and an organization of the two houses was completed the same day by the election of W. W. Avery, Esq., of Burke county, speaker of the senate, and of Jesse G. Shepherd, Esq., of Cumberland, speaker of the house of commons. Hon. John Hill was chosen principal clerk of the senate, and Quentin Busbee, Esq., reading clerk, both unanimously. Edward Cantwell and George Howard, Esq'rs., were elected principal and reading clerks of the house.—Both branches of the legislature being largely democratic, these gentlemen are all members of that party. The message of Gov. Bragg was to have been sent in on Tuesday.

The gentlemen chosen to preside over the deliberations of the legislature belong to the young and working democracy of this now reliable democratic State. Mr. Avery comes from the western portion of the State, where for several years he sustained the banner of democracy and defended its cause against an overwhelming majority of the people and the whole bar of the mountain circuit. Truth has prevailed against error; other arms have struck for sound principles, and that section of the State has been revolutionized. Mr. Avery enjoys much personal popularity, having been repeatedly elected to the house of commons in his own county, giving a large anti-democratic majority. The present is his first appearance in the senate. He was a member of the Cincinnati Convention, and held the honorable position as chairman of the North Carolina delegation. Mr. Shepherd is a representative of the east, and is a lawyer of rapidly-increasing reputation. He has served one session as a member of the house, where he distinguished himself as a leading and useful member. The unanimity with which these excellent presiding officers have been chosen is an omen of the harmony to prevail during the deliberations of the session and a realization of the benefits accruing to the State from Democratic control.

Washington Union.

NIGGERS AND PATRIOTISM.—Mr. Clingman's Charlotte letter seems to have thrown the whole batch of Southern Know Nothing Union "shriekers" into spasms. The K. N. Editors of the State seem to think he had special allusion to them as the individuals who would have been promptly taken care of by vigilance committees, had the crisis but a short time since so much feared, come upon us. As Mr. Buchanan is elected, and there will be no occasion for vigilance committees to watch over the interests of Southern communities, at least for the next four years, we advise these nervous gentlemen to dismiss their fears, and no longer suffer themselves to be disturbed by such ugly visions.

The main argument relied upon by those gentlemen to weaken the force of Mr. Clingman's position, and if possible injure him in the estimation of the Southern people, is the oft repeated story that he is not a slave-holder. Wonderful logic! Worthy of its illustrious authors!! Tried by this rule, ninety-nine hundredths of the soldiers of the Revolution were not patriots. And by the same process of reasoning, we must conclude that a large majority of those who fought the battles of the country in the late war with Mexico were not patriots. Take the gallant company that went from this county, for example, and how many of them were slave-holders? Not one in twenty. Were not these men patriots? Their country has honored them as such, and they richly deserved it.

Mr. Clingman, although a Southern man by birth, education, interest, feeling, and every tie which can bind a man to his section, and thoroughly identified with the South by past efforts in her behalf, and by all his hopes for the future, is not a slave-holder, and cannot, therefore, according to these new lights, be an honest man and a patriot!! Such flummery comes very appropriately from the K. N. press.

How long will Know Nothing editors continue to insult the good sense of the community with such twaddle—the natural offspring of an effete aristocracy, as disgusting to the intelligent slave-holder, as to everybody else? Asheville News.

WHAT GOOD DID MR. FILLMORE'S RUNNING DO?—It is contended by some persons and presses that Mr. Buchanan owes the success of his election to the fact that Mr. Fillmore was a candidate.

Let us test the value of this opinion. It will hardly be said that Mr. Fillmore aided Mr. Buchanan in the State of New York, for Mr. Buchanan will not receive the electorial votes of that State—the same can be said of all the New England States. Mr. Fillmore's running did not help Mr. Buchanan in Pennsylvania, for the democratic ticket obtained more votes in that State than the Fillmore and Fremont ticket united.

Mr. Fillmore's running prevented the democratic candidate from receiving the electoral vote of Maryland, and hence he afforded no help to the democracy in that State.

In Ohio Mr. Fillmore was of no service to the democracy, for that State was carried by the black republicans.

In Indiana the democracy triumphed over the Fillmore and Fremont fusion.

In Illinois, if reports are reliable, the democracy have triumphed in spite of fusion, Fillmore, Fremont, and everything else.

In New Jersey Buchanan received about as many votes as Fillmore and Fremont united.

Inasmuch as Michigan and Wisconsin have gone for Fremont, Mr. Fillmore did not aid the democracy in those States.

In all the southern States the Fillmore party opposed the democracy. Where, then did the know-nothing candidate benefit the democratic nominee?

Will some of the wise men of the know-nothing party bring up some reliable data upon which to sustain the opinion that Mr. Buchanan owes a single electoral vote which he requires to elect him to the presidency to any effort on the part of Mr. Fillmore's friends?

Mr. Buchanan owes his election to the votes of the national democracy of the Union, aided by thousands of conservative, constitutional whigs, and not to know-nothingism or black republicanism.

TRUST SALE

Of Magnolia Salt Sulphur Spring and Farm, and other Estate.

BY VIRTUE OF A DEED OF TRUST EXECUTED by David Jardan to me for the benefit of his creditors generally, and duly recorded in the Clerk's Office of Nansemond County, I shall sell, on THURSDAY, the Fourth day of December next, at Public Auction, on the Premises, the well known "MAGNOLIA FARM," containing 164¼ acres, situated between the Norfolk and Petersburg and the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroads, and accessible to both, but immediately on the latter, thirteen miles from Portsmouth, and four from Suffolk. Also, ninety acres of Woodland nearly adjoining.

On the first named piece of Land is the justly celebrated "MAGNOLIA SALT SULPHUR SPRING," analyzed by one of the first Chemists of the country, and which analysis is said to develop the most rare and valuable alterative and other mineral properties of any Water either in this country or Europe; and its efficacy in many chronic and other diseases, and its unusually healthy location, should attract Capitalists to the merits of this property, for an extensive Eastern Watering-Place.

The Proprietor states that the sales of the Water alone, although not introduced generally, beyond a few of the surrounding counties, have been worth $1100 per year, and he thinks by a little enterprise they may reach an amount in a short time that will be of more importance than all other considerations

The Land is rich in vegetable matter, and underlayed with a rich decomposed shell marl, reaching in some places within four and a half feet of the surface, and the Farm would make one of the best Trucking Farms in the county, from the fact of its fertility and easy access to market.

The improvements will accommodate seventy-five visitors, and are in good order, together with all necessary out buildings. The whole improvements cost at least $5000.

Also, at the same time and place, will be sold all the FURNITURE, of every kind, lately used in the Hotel and Cottages of the place, together with all other chattel Property, to-wit: Corn, Farming Implements, &c., &c. Also, a Negro Woman, a good cook and washer; and a likely Boy, fifteen years old.

For the analysis of the Water, which will be sent by mail to order, or any further particulars, apply to David Jordan, on the premises, or the subscriber in Suffolk, Va. Sale positive.

The title is believed to be good, but selling as Trustee I shall only give a Deed with special warranty.

TERMS—The Farm and Land, one-half at six months and the other half at twelve months, with interest from date, to be satisfactorily secured to the Trustee. The Negroes cash; and the chattel estate at three months, with interest from date. Bond and good security for all sums over $20; that and under, cash.

JNO. R. KILBY, Trustee.

Mitchell's Series of Dissected Maps.

THE UNDERSIGNED ARE PUBLISHING A SERIES of Dissected Maps, to which they would invite the attention of parents, teachers and others.

We have now ready,

Mitchell's Dissected Map of the United States.
" " " " Eastern "
" " " " Middle "
" " " " Southern "
" " " " Western "

The above are made from Mitchell's latest Maps, and although issued only ten weeks since, we are now using the

FIFTH THOUSAND.

We are constantly receiving orders and recommendations from various parts of the United States, and numerous inquiries for them, for Schools and District Libraries, as well as from the trade.

They are neatly put up in book form, and will be found to be instructive as well as amusing for old and young.

The effort required to put them together without the key map, (which should not be referred to) will serve to indelibly impress on the mind the relative locality of the States, as well as their respective boundaries.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY.

Better for children than a bushel of the dissected pictures gotten up merely for amusement. A child will never tire of these maps, and while he is amusing himself he will be insensibly acquiring a knowledge of the geography of his country.—Zion's Herald.

They combine instruction with amusement, and are admirably calculated to impress on the mind of the young, the locality of the different parts of their own country.—They make study attractive, and a young person will learn more in a single hour's amusement with these maps, than in hours of hard study of the ordinary ones.

Phren. Journal.

You cannot teach geography in any way so effectually as by setting the pupil to construct the map from these dissected parts.

Independent.

Exceeding valuable in imparting novelty and interest to a useful study.

Troy Times.

An agreeable contrivance for blending amusement with instruction.

Tribune.

In putting these maps together, which children delight to do, they will learn "geography without a master" and keep as quiet as mice.

Home Journal.

Every family should possess this series of maps that the, younger members may profitably while away their leisure hours. Nothing can be more useful.

Roche ter Union.

An ingenious device, for teaching geography.

Evangelist.

Physic and geography were equally distateful in our youthful days, but sugar coated pills have induced children to cry for the first, and we venture to assert that the ingenious originators of this idea, have rendered the second as attractive.

Yankee Blade.

A valuable acquisition to a private library.

Presbyterian.

Booksellers and others will find the Dissected Maps to command a ready sale, especially of the United States, and the one of the series that contains their own State.

1900 Acres of Land for Sale.

I WILL SELL FROM ONE TO THIRTEEN HUNDRED Acres of Cape Fear River Land, lying twelve miles above Fayetteville, on the East side of the River. There are about Two Hundred Acres of cleared Land in fine condition. The aforesaid Land is not inferior to any in this section of the country, and is offered lower than any such land can be bought for in this or any of the neighboring counties—as I am determined to sell. The choice of three very healthy and desirable sand-hill places for a residence can be made, from one to one and a half miles from the Plantation,—one of these contains 200 acres of Pine Land, with a good two-story dwelling and all necessary out buildings, all new. Another tract contains 300 acres, with a task of new turpentine boxes, and is without improvements. A third tract contains 85 acres fine choice ridge land, partially improved. The neighborhood is very good, and the situation is healthy, pleasant and altogether desirable. The Northern Plank Road runs through each of the sand-hill tracts, and the plantation or river land has the advantage of a choice cow and hog range. Address,

NEILL McDUGALD,

A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.—I HAVE recently obtained possession of the magnificent picture representing the death-bed scene of the venerable John Wesley. This large and imposing picture was painted by O. P. Copeland, Esq., expressly for exhibition, and sold by him some time ago to G. D. Weekly, from whom I have obtained it. I now offer it for sale on very reasonable terms, and feel assured that a proper person could by exhibiting it realize a handsome sum of money. The picture is about 10 by 15 feet in dimensions, and represents the great founder of Methodism, a few moments before his death, surrounded by some eighteen or twenty of his distinguished friends and followers, all as large as life.
